

ALIGNMENT WITH CEHHS STRATEGIC PLAN

CEHHS GOAL

TRRC CONTRIBUTION

Develop world-class programs designed for the needs of today and the future and develop outstanding teaching of faculty for these programs, for the purposes of increasing student enrollment and greater student success.	The TRRC offers undergraduate and graduate students opportunities to participate in research and gain experience that will support their future careers.
Engage in and produce high-impact research and scholarship.	The center was founded to conduct research for the state, and it is dedicated to supporting the literacy research of faculty and graduate students.
Make a direct and visible impact on our local and global community.	The mission of the center is to help all individuals acquire the means for full and equitable participation in society. Literacy ability is linked not only to educational attainment, but also to individuals' and societal health and well-being.
Enhance the working environment for staff and faculty in the college for the purposes of achieving Goals 1-3.	The TRRC helps to coordinate literacy related faculty for the purposes of providing an infrastructure to support their work and a sense of community. In addition, TRRC staff are involved in operational decision-making and are encouraged to seek professional development opportunities that will allow them to grow in their roles.
