

Practices for Reading Success

READ FOR FUN

Choose books that are interesting and personally relevant to your child.

EASE IN

Start small routines such as 20 minutes of reading per day.

APPLY THE STEPS TO FORM READING HABITS

Choose a daily time and space to read. Create a cue to start reading, and set a reward for finishing.

DISCUSS THE BOOKS

Talk to your child about their reaction when reading about characters/people, events, or information.

YEARN TO LEARN

As a family, set goals to read for a certain amount of time or to complete a set number of books.

Directions:

Download, print, and cut along the edges of the design. Display on a refrigerator or in a place you and your student can see daily.
